Hubbard Supervisor President

Hancock County supervisors began their new term with a lengthy, after 5 p.m. session Monday approving county employees hired on a yearly basis and reviewing bids for supplies after taking their oaths of office from District 8 Chancellor William Hewes.

R. G. Hubbard Jr., beginning his third term as Beat 5 supervisor, was named board chairman. He succeeds Beat 4 Supervisor Jack Lott, who was defeated by James Necaise in the Democratic primary last August. In his new position, Hubbard will not be limited in his voting capacity and can make a motion by stepping down from the chairman's position.

Other new members of the board are I. M. (Ike) Frierson succeeding Mrs. Frank Keller, Beat 2, and Charles J. Lavinghouse succeeding Johnson S. Shaw, Beat 3. Charles A. Russ Jr., of Beat 1 returned to his position.

A major portion of the morning session and all afternoon was spent reading and reviewing bids for the yearly supplies such as cleaning materials for county buildings and road construction supplies. Bids were held for further consideration on the advice of Board Attorney Sam Favre Jr., who explained they must be read on the date advertised but the board could postpone action.

A request from Sheriff Gerald V. Price sr. for a night jailor was refused on the grounds the budget does not provide for this position. Hubbard commented Price could hire one out of his office funds.

County employees approved by the board on a yearly basis were Sam Favre Jr., board attorney; Mrs. Yvonne Frick, county home caretaker; Enoch Kennedy, county engineer; C. L. Mobley, seaway maintenance superintendent; Mrs. Ina Piazza and Frank Klein sr., commodity office; and Roland Lafontaine sr., janitor.

Dr. Frank Schmidt was approved as jail physician for a (Cont. on Page 4.)

Chooses 15 for Deputies

By Elmore Povall
County-wide law enforcement plans revealed by new Sheriff Gerald V. Price sr., a former Beat 5 constable, include a proposed combination law enforcement force with the City of Bay St. Louis and the Town of Waveland and strict police protection for county residents.

Price said that he has talked with Bay St. Louis city fathers and they agree to the idea of a close knit police group. Further plans will be worked out after a short orientation period in the office. He has already appointed 15 deputies who will be working county-wide.

"There will be no syndicate gambling during my term of office and I intend to break up any slot machine I find in the county," he said, declining to commit himself on such gaming as keno and bingo. Summing up his policy on gambling, Price said he will fight anything that would be a disgrace to the county.

"I'm not going in for any razzle-dazzle on the highways, such as demanding stop arrests, but I do intend to put any form of hot rod racing and will take anyone off the highways who is breaking the law," Price commented.

Price said he will not close any barroom as long as the state collects a black market tax on liquor, but that he will patrol barrooms to enforce law and order. Price also stated that es-

Murphy Named Chairman Of County School Board

Trustee Charles Murphy was elected president and Mrs. C. C. McDonald vice president of the county board of education at its reorganizational meeting Monday.

Mrs. McDonald, who has been president for three years, was nominated for another term, declined the post but accepted the vice presidency. Walter James Phillips was reappointed as attorney.

A resolution was adopted commending outgoing Superintendent E. E. Breland, who served from 1948 through 1959, for his excellent work and lauding his untiring efforts in behalf of betterment of children in the county.

Attending his first board meeting of the term, Superintendent K. G. McCarty said politics would play no part in the administration of school affairs during his term and that his office was open to all. He said he was determined to improve the school bus situation and intended to have all buses in good running condition so if one broke down it could be replaced by another.

The board went into executive session from 3 to 3:40 p.m. to set the salaries of the superintendent and office employees. Mrs. McDonald said, McCarty's salary was set at $6,600 plus $60 per month travel expenses, which is the same as Breland's, Mrs. Estelle Depree $250 per month and Kathy Alliston $175.

The board has been unable to have the Kiln property surveyed so as to convey the part not needed for school purposes to a church organization but it is hoped this can be done before the next meeting at 9 a.m. Jan. 16. No bids were received pursuant to an advertisement for a duplicating machine for Gulfview School.

McCarty said he favors a central garage for the buses and intends to have Honey Schwall, the mechanic employed by the board, to prepare an inventory of all parts on hand as of Jan. 1 and a list of that used from Jan. 1 through Jan. 15 for the next meeting.

Phillips briefed McCarty on his duties as superintendent, the administrative head of the educational system, saying that whenever he saw something that would help the administration of the schools he was at liberty to make necessary changes and it was good policy to tell the board. He said the board had a record of supporting the superintendent and would continue to do so;

Is a Name, Is A Name, Ouch!

The board of the Bay St. Louis Separate Municipal School District may resign en masse after tonight. If so, naming a newschool will be the reason.

So far at least five names have been suggested, the simplest being just Dunbar Avenue Elementary School. The most active movement seems to favor naming the school for the late Mrs. Lena Driver Stockstill, well known teacher; while the name of another deceased teacher, Miss Celine Ashcraft, has been proposed by others.

Cedar Point Elementary and North Bay Elementary as a name for the new school have many supporters. Those supporting one or the other of these two neutral (?) names have speculated on what the cheering section at an athletic contest would sound like yelling: "Rah! Rah! Rah! Mrs. Lena Driver Stockstill Elementary" or "Miss Celine Ashcraft Elementary".

Arrest 2 in Tri-County Theft Ring

Two men, alleged to be members of an outboard motor and TV theft ring operating in Hancock, Harrison and Jackson Counties, are being held in Harrison County jail on charges ranging from burglary to armed robbery, according to a statement issued Wednesday by J. J. Wittmann, outgoing Harrison County sheriff.

B. C. Woodcock of Gulfport was arrested shortly before Christmas by highway patrolmen Joe Price and Irvin Rippey; Glen-dale Ray Sones, of Poplarville, was arrested by the officers two months ago. Wittmann said. Two other suspects are being sought by the highway patrol and all law enforcement agencies in the three counties. Names of the two ring members were not released.

Appointments Made to Parks, Housing Bodies

Two new appointments each to the Bay St. Louis Housing Authority Commission and the Parks and Playground Commission were announced today by commission chairmen.

Ray Prosser was appointed to the housing authority replacing Wallace Bontemps who resigned as a member of the commission to become executive director, which post was vacated when George E. Heitzmann resigned to become county tax assessor. Bontemps' unexpired term, which will be served by Prosser expires April, 1962. Henry C. Lang was appointed to serve the unexpired term of T. T. Robin who resigned. The term runs until April, 1960.

The commission now consists of Edward Arceneaux, chairman, Anthony Benigno, Ben Hille sr., Lang and Prosser.

New members of the Parks and Playgrounds commission are Woodrow Lafontaine, replacing Mrs. Ben Hille who resigned, and Mrs. Lawrence Jacob, replacing E. P. Larroux, who also resigned.

The committee consists of Mrs. Theo Tudary, chairman, Warren Buehler, P. E. Porter Jr., Lafontaine and Larroux.

Mrs. A. P. Smith Elected Hospital Auxiliary Prexy

Mrs. A. P. Smith was elected president of the Hancock General Hospital auxiliary to succeed Mrs. Wallace Chevils when the group held its first meeting of the New Year Monday with 14 members present at the Youth Center.

Others elected from the slate presented by the nominating committee of which Mrs. E. A. Alexander was chairman, included Mrs. Leo W. Seal, first vice president; Mrs. Lucille Weeks, second vice president, with the following re-elected: Mrs. Allen Orte, recording secretary; Mrs. John Boudages, Lakeshore, and Mrs. J. R. Shado, treasurer. Elected to the board of directors were Mrs. Joseph Kern, Mrs. Weeks, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Chevils and Mrs. C. E. Becker, Lakeshore.

After a report on the membership drive by Mrs. Henrietta Mohr and Audrey Macintosh, it was agreed that each member endeavor to secure additional members so a representative group will be organized by the (Cont. on Page 10.)

At Waveland Council Dogs, Hours Topics

Plans to strengthen Waveland's dog ordinance moved forward Tuesday night when Town Attorney Dan M. Russell Jr. was authorized to prepare an amendment to the present ordinance restricting all dogs not inoculated for rabies and running at large without a muzzle.

The present ordinance adopted last May prohibits the running at large in town unless inoculated in accordance with paragraph 6815 of the state code. Russell advised the aldermen that a proposed disposal time limit of five days would have to be investigated further to determine its legality. He said a Jackson ordinance requiring all dogs at large to be muzzled had been upheld by the State Supreme Court.

Action on the amendment is expected in February. A decision on an offer from R. F. Mestayer, representative of Modern Homes, Inc., for the water system in Gulf Gardens at $3,000 payable in five yearly notes of $600 each was postponed until all possibilities can be investigated.

Russell observed the town would have to show a need for the system and surplus funds to purchase it since a certain amount must be kept in reserve. He noted that all 33 system users would have to sign an agreement allowing the town to take it over.

Russell questioned the legality of buying the system on time, adding that the town can not purchase on a rental-purchase plan.

Another legal question arose over whether the town could pay a $100 reward leading to the arrest and conviction of anyone destroying, mutilating or removing town property.

Alderman Dominick Sonier, who proposed the reward, commented that a $30 town limits sign and several $6 traffic signs had been stolen within the past months.

Secretary C. O. Dufour was directed to ask the attorney general for a ruling on the legality of the reward payment.

In other matters the aldermen agreed to place 10 additional street lights throughout the town this month. Mayor Garfield Ladner said that requests from February, 1959, up through the present would be honored if possible. He added the lights would be divided as equally as possible among the four wards.

Both Sonier and Ladner commented that several property owners from out of town had complained about finding the office closed during the regular hours after coming to Waveland to pay their taxes.

Land roll adjustments were made for C. H. Still in Gulf Gardens Subdivision and R. W. Riggs in Starland Place Subdivision after it was found that the property had been over assessed. Dufour commented that there may have been a misinterpretation of a building per-

Tigers Topple Hawks

After taking a licking in the first half, Bay High Tigers came off the floor in the second to wage a magnificent uphill battle, fighting gamely for every point and defeating the area's highest rated quintet, North Central's Hawks, 68-63 before a wildly cheering crowd last night in the Bay High gym.

The evening's activities began as usual with the Hawkettes taking the opener 35-26. Nothing out of the ordinary happened in the first half of the main event, the highly favored Hawks leading by 11 points and playing their usual fast breaking and passing game. Time and again it was Necaise to Necaise down court for a lay-up.

But the second half was different. Whatever it was coach Wilmer Seymour told his men at halftime, it worked. The Tigers came out like a different team, their competitive spirit aroused, and would not be denied. They hogged the ball like demons and smothered the Necaise stars, particularly Wayne who was only able to get through for 2 points.

"This game cost me $50 but it was worth every penny and more," coach Seymour said after the game. "I told the boys if they would go out and win this one for me I would buy the team the best steak dinner in town."

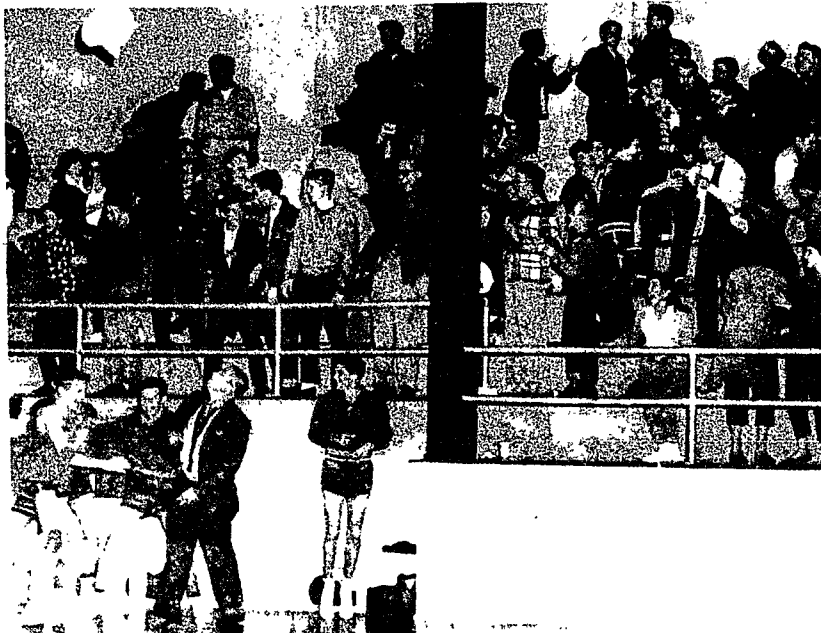

"The boys were up for this one but don't sell North Central short, they played a terrific game and I want to congratulate coach James Johnson and his team. They are the greatest basketball players we ever met. They are terrific competitors but clean sportsmen."

Displaying the determination and fine competitive spirit that won him a spot on the Gulf Coast Conference all-star football squad, Bill Watts bulled his way to a tie with Barry Stephens for high scoring honors for the Tigers with 21 points each. Ronnie Peterson made 12, Woody Alliston, who played a magnificent game offensively and defensively, 7, Tommy Godwin 4, and Paul Miller 3.

There was no stopping high scoring, speedy Douglas Necaise who came through with an impressive 28 points for the Hawks. Donald got 13, John 9, Berlin 6, Barney 5 and Wayne 2.

Score by quarters:
Bay High 12 16 20 20 - 68
N. Central 16 23 10 14 - 63

WE DID IT! — Pandemonium broke loose in the Bay High stands as the final buzzer sounded Wednesday night ending a nip and tuck basketball game won by the Tigers 68-63. Coach Wilmer Seymour grabs a towel from a player and sends it sailing to the ceiling.

New Political Faces

In Hancock County 1960 begins with many new people in public positions. In two cases the job is new: clerk of circuit court and clerk of chancery court.

Mr. R. G. Hubbard, Jr., in his third term, is the new president of the county board of supervisors, which has three new members; Mr. Charles Murphy, a former president of the board of supervisors, is the new chairman of the county board of education; Mr. Claiborne Ladner and Mr. Lamar Otis are the new court clerks; Mr. Clifton Saucier is on the hospital board; Mr. George Heitzmann is the new tax assessor; Mr. Gerald Price is the new sheriff; and there are changes in other offices.

We hope all of them success in their new responsibilities because success for them means that their constituents will be well served.

Unfortunate Start

Sometimes a particular law of itself causes unintended trouble. An illustration of this occurred this week at a meeting of the Hancock County Board of Supervisors.

Mr. George Heitzmann, newly elected tax assessor who took office on Monday, recommended Mrs. Katherine Meyer for his county-paid assistant. The board refused to go along with Mr. Heitzmann's recommendation.

Essentially the board not only had the authority to do so, but, since they pay the assistant, they are obviously interested in who gets the job, and this is by no means the first time similar action has been taken by boards of supervisors.

On the other hand any assistant must work with his superior if a good job is to be done, and on that basis the tax assessor is interested in his assistant. From the taxpayers' standpoint the tax assessor's interest appears to us the greater.

In any event, even more to be regretted is the friction, so early in their terms of office, between the board and the tax assessor. Political plums being what they are and politics being politics maybe this result should be expected.

My Favorite Prayer

By: JEROME HINES
Metropolitan, Opera, New York, N. Y.

Almighty God, through the death of Thy Son Thou hast destroyed sin and death, and by His resurrection hast brought immortality and eternal life, in order that we, redeemed from the power of the devil, may abide in Thy kingdom. Grant that we may believe this with a whole heart and, steadfast in faith, praise and thank Thee through Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. (Devotions and Prayers of Martin Luther) chairman. He is a graduate of Mississippi State University and is in the insurance business in Laurel. Under his leadership the Mississippi chapter is tied for the No. 1 spot in the nation. National director LeVohn Hargis of Pascagoula will give the oath of office to officials who include Mike Haas, president; Charles Thomas, first vice president; E. J. Maranga, second vice president; Charles Carter jr., secretary; C. J. Piazza, treasurer; John Piazza, state director; and A. E. Macmillan jr., Frank L. Schmidt, Charles Poolson jr., C. J. McHenry, Robert D. Landon and Norman Haas jr., members of the board of directors.

At a special meeting Monday night the board of directors approved plans for the annual convention of the Mississippi chapter of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, which will be held at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club on Jan. 14-15.

that his job was to advise on legal matters and prepare documents and that the superintendent could call on him at any time for legal advice but he never tried to influence the board on any decision.

C. R. Knowlton, president of the North Central Parent-Teacher Assn., invited McCarty and the board to meet with his association. He said the teachers had gone on record at a meeting Sunday night as not being able to accept the responsibility for teaching children during the first two hours of the day because of lateness of school buses. He also reported that a deputy sheriff had clocked one bus at 65 miles per hour and two others had been reported traveling more than 60; that buses were being driven by drivers who were under age.

On one occasion a bus was put in the garage for repair and on the second trip after it was returned the tie rods fell off, Knowlton continued, telling of an "unauthorized trip" to Jackson on a private bus when three children were left and had to get back by themselves.

Phillips said the board had established a strict policy on transportation and was taking all possible steps to correct the situation.

Knowlton also cited the need for a registered nurse and a dispensary, stating that North Central was in the "middle of nowhere".

He said the P-TA had requested the board of supervisors to use the North Central area as a site for the county fair so the buildings could later be used for 4-H and other educational activities, and called for a board of trustees for the school so the county board would have a broader account of its activities.

McCarty said he would have the mechanic check all the rods on the buses the following day as well as other safety points. Also, that he would draw up a form of regulations and policy for drivers and give each one and any driver failing to comply would be dismissed. He added there had been considerable difficulty obtaining drivers in the past.

six-month term. Claude Graham, nominated by Frierson, was elected to replace former county wide machine operator Charlie Thigpen, re-nominated by Russ, by a 3-1 vote, Hubbard abstaining.

County bridge tenders approved for the year were Mrs. Emma Baxter, Beat 1; Willie E. Faye, Beat 4; and Sylvan Jack Ladner jr., Beat 5. Tenders are not hired for Beats 2 and 3.

On Lavinghouse's motion, approval was postponed on the appointment of Mrs. Katherine Mayer of Waveland whom newly installed Tax Assessor George Heitzmann recommended for his county-paid assistant.

At Wednesday's session, a motion to hire Mrs. Mayer at $225 per month which was supported by Frierson and Necaise was voted down by Lavinghouse, Hubbard and Russ.

A new recommendation for the position is expected next week by Lavinghouse.

Heitzmann asked how he was expected to operate his office without competent assistance, adding that an employee working under him should be hired by him. Hubbard explained the assessor could not hire anyone without the approval of the board and postponed the discussion until next week.

mit for repair rather than construction.

A contract from L. W. Newman, representative of Louisville and Nashville Railroad Co., which extends the railroad's lease on a gas distribution and regulator station in Waveland for five years at $10 per year was approved. Dufour is to write the railroad asking that it clean its lot in the 3rd Ward and cut the grass growing along the right of way.

Ladner explained that often the city gets no reply after writing a property owner to clean his lot after a letter from M. P. Boulet of Beach Boulevard said the town would gain if it would request property owners to clean their land without neighbors having to make a complaint.

He added that according to law the city could not clean the property until a formal complaint had been filed by a neighbor.

The aldermen agreed to advertise that property school tax and homestead exemption applications are now due in Bay St. Louis so that Waveland landowners won't be misinformed.

Council decided to advertise for sale an extra fire pump engine. Russell said that the town could not give the engine away, but could sell it for as little as $1.

Mayor Ladner commented that the sign change over from Railroad Avenue to Central Avenue will be done this month. Capt. W. S. Wittelsberger of Nicholson Avenue commended Alderman Sonier for his efficient manner on requests from his ward.

Four building permits approved by the council were Russell Alba, Combel's Subdivision, building, $1,000; Russell Alba, Combel's Subdivision, building, $1,000; Capt. W. S. Wittelsberger, second ward, car port, $200; and Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Aiken jr., Aiken subdivision, house, $3,500.

51 Bidders for Hospital Goods

Hancock County supervisors were in session most of Wednesday reviewing 51 separate bids for furnishing and equipment for the new Hancock General Hospital which is scheduled to open sometime in March.

Results of bid tabulations by Charles O'Neal of the Mississippi Commission on Hospital Care of Jackson were scheduled for today but were unavailable at press time.

O'Neal opened and read the bids before a large group of bidders. Bids were refused on the advice of Board Attorney Sam Favre jr. from Werzburg Bros. of Memphis, Tenn., and the American Hospital Supply Corporation of Dallas, Texas, because they were received past the 11 a.m. deadline and from W. R. Gordon of Waveland because it was not signed in the proper place.

Awards of the bids are expected today by the board subject to the approval of the Jackson and Atlanta, Ga., offices of the Commission on Hospital Care. The board met this morning to approve December statements.

Clifton Saucier of Standard has been appointed by new Board Supervisor Charles Lavinghouse to fill Lavinghouse's vacation position on the Hancock General Hospital Board of Trustees, pending official confirmation by board of supervisors.

Saucier will serve until the next appointment by ex-supervisor Johnson Shaw expires this month, according to Board Attorney Sam Favre jr.

Lavinghouse was serving as hospital board president at the time of his resignation.

Local Pair Returns Through Blizzard

They didn't realize it at the time but two local widows, returning from a trip to California, traveled through what an AP release Wednesday called "A snowstorm that reached blizzard intensity, closing schools and slicking highways in parts of the Southwest."

"After leaving sunny California I never saw so much snow in my life," said Mrs. Carmelita Saudier of Nocaize Ave., Tuesday night before reading of the blizzard in Wednesday's papers. She was accompanied by Mrs. John Longo sr., of Nicholson Ave., Waveland.

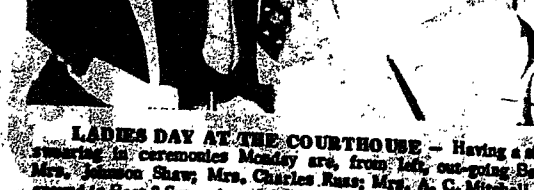

The pair flew from New Orleans Dec. 22 to Los Angeles, Calif., stopping only once to refuel in Dallas, Tex. They were met at the airport by Mrs. Saudier's daughter and family, Sgt. and Mrs. Elmer Boyd and four children who drove them to their home in San Marcos, Calif., about 60 miles from Los Angeles. They also visited Mrs. Saudier's nephew Mr. and Mrs. A. Z. Lolasco, and family in San Gabriel. They left California by train Dec. 29 to spend New Year's at the home of Mrs. Saudier's daughter and family, Warrant Officer and Mrs. Norman Glass in Clorville, N. M. They also drove to Hobbs, N. M., to spend a day with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tourne who formerly operated an automobile parts wholesale business in Bay St. Louis, Mrs. Tourne is the daughter of Mrs. Henry Fayard of the Bay.

On their hazardous journey home from New Mexico, the pair stopped in Orange, Tex., to visit Mrs. Saudier's uncle, Sam Lolasco and family.

It was Mrs. Longo's first airplane trip. "I preferred the bus," she said, "because I could see more." Mrs. Saudier has made several plane trips, including one to the island of Guam.

Dizzy Dean Is Breakfast Guest

Dizzy Dean and his wife were Saturday breakfast guests at Broadview Restaurant on U. S. 90 with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mathis, and District Attorney and Mrs. Boyce Holleman of Wiggins, who were returning from the Sugar Bowl, according to Mrs. Louise Wymer, restaurant owner. Mrs. Wymer said the "fireballer of the old gas house gang" was just as entertaining in person as he is broadcasting.

Hawks Top St. Martin

Douglas Necaise and his fast-breaking, ball-stealing Hawks cohorts handed St. Martin of North Biloxi another licking Saturday night in the North Central gym in a hotly contested game 60-55.

The game was similar to the one played Nov. 23 when the Hawks won 66-48 although the St. Martin Yellow Jackets were a little tougher this time taking the second period by four points and holding the Hawks even in the third, North Central got off to a fast start winning the first quarter by seven but at half time the Yellow Jackets had cut the lead to three points.

Douglas was high scorer with 14 while Wayne made 13, Gary Tyndall of St. Martin accounted Tomorrow winds up another duck season until next winter and most hunters will agree that this has been the best year in a long time.

The curtain falls tomorrow also on geese, coots and snipe although the latter two have almost disappeared from this area. Deer will be off limits after Saturday and game warden Randolph Bourgeois reminds us "no does". Doves remain fair game until Jan. 15.

For new hunters we have some tips on cleaning the birds that may be helpful. The feathers should be picked from around the neck first, grasping a few at a time between thumb and forefinger and turning the head like turning a key. If you pull too many feathers at a time the skin may be torn.

Remove the oil gland in the tail, cutting the entire gland free and making sure to remove all whitish material in the two glands under the skin. Since him over a fire. Break down the bird over the edge of a table holding the top of the cavity and the tail for easy access for removing internal organs after a lateral incision is made along the base of rib cage. Remove liver, heart and gizzard for giblets. Peel muscle away from gizzard sac but do not cut sac. Wash and drain bird and he is ready for oven or freezer.

Weather was mostly too bad for fishermen to venture out during the week, most sportsmen preferring the shelter of their homes and the excitement of TV bowl games.

Speaking of bowl games - which we prefer not to after last week's prediction - we agree with Peter Finney, New Orleans columnist, who said "It will be a long time before a football team gets in the fix LSU found itself in this season. . . had the Tigers declined a Sugar Bowl invitation, they would have been considered 'chicken' in some quarters. . . the night of Jan. 1 they were considered 'stupid' for 21.

Score by quarters: North Central 17 12 17 14 - 60 St. Martin 10 16 17 12 - 55

The Hawkettes dropped the opener to the undefeated St. Martin girls 63-47 in a fast one. The Yellow Jacket girls copied the lead in the first quarter and were never headed holding quarter leads of 18-8, 39-19 and 49-31.

Bonnie Sue Peterson and Janell Ladner topped the scoring with 14 points each for the Hawkettes while Joan Fountain racked up a terrific 32 markers for St. Martin.

Mrs. Griffin Takes Monthly Ringer Prize

Miss Anne Liversedge posted a low net of 40 to win top honors in the weekly ladies day competition Tuesday at Pass Christian Golf Club. Low puts went to Mrs. Richard Hagg with 15. Mrs. Johnny Griffin won the monthly ringer tournament with a net 60. Miss Julia Frye defeated Mrs. John Ellis 3 up to win the monthly match play tournament.

Qualifying was held for the January match play tournament, first round of which is to be played on or before Tuesday. Pairings are: Miss Liversedge vs. Mrs. Walter Russo; Mrs. Griffin vs. Mrs. Guy Buffin; Mrs. Powell Glass Jr. vs. Mrs. John David; Mrs. Hagg vs. Mrs. Ellis.

Others attending the luncheon were Mesdames Jane Borden, Ruth Polk, Ruth Bondy, Sara Sharp, Grady Riggan, John V. Dugan, Otis Winnard, W. P. McCutcheon, Rupert Riggs, Dave Poindexter, Don Prentice, John McDonald and Miss Maud Frye. Next Tuesday's luncheon hostess is Mrs. Jasper McDonald.
